Resolution

Let the emergency contact know, she said she is the cleaning lady and will make the owner aware. Said that there seems to be one person/house that calls and complains a lot. Informed I don't have a way to know if it's the same or different person, but if it is happening a lot they will get lots of complaints and informed that since it is not happening right now, if it does happen again tonight, informed the person that filed the complaint to call back and we would be contacting code enforcement.
