

CSU Extension updates 6-13-2022

Changes at CSU –

- Resignation of President Joyce McConnell.
- Moving toward Faculty Status. I will be working on my Dossier and CV

Wolf Education efforts –

- Continue work on the TWG until August
- Working with CPW on trainings and outreach
- Blackfoot Challenge
- New wildlife specialist coming on board in January
- Presented poster at ANREP
- Thank you for your support

Internships

- Mia Carrillo – Cultural Food
- Dominique Valdez – Cultural Food
- Esme Wissinger – State Naturalist Program
- Sarah Langley – Guide to Rural Living

Master Gardener

- Graduated 4 new MG's – one moved away.
- Sheriff's garden
- Ruby Sisson Library

CERT Training

- Grant - $8620.65
- 4 Counties
- Training to be held in early 2023

Search Chair for SLV Juntos position

Attend NACAA in July – receiving the Distinguished Service Award

2022 meeting dates:

September 12

December 12

4-H Report

Extension Advisory Board meeting

6.13.22

- Cloverbuds graduation May 24
 - 18 finished, including 7 that graduate to 4-H next year

- 103 4-H members enrolled in 175 projects
 - 44 Livestock members: 5 Beef members; 10 Chicken members; 16 Turkey members; 5 Goat; 6 sheep; 21 Swine members
 - 13 Horse members
 - 9 Dog members

- 4-H State Conference, June 21-24 in Ft. Collins at CSU
 - 6 members attending
- Citizen Washington Focus, June 25-July 1
 - 1 member attending

- Had a successful District Dog Fun match June 11th
 - 3 from La Plata
 - 5 from Archuleta