Five Members Appointed to County Tourism Commission

The Archuleta County Board of Commissioners appointed five citizens from the community for a two year term to the newly restructured County Tourism Commission. The new members are: Kate Alfred, Jerry Baker, Jeff Greer, Marsha Preuit and Karin Kohake. Kohake will serve as the County staff representative.

The County Tourism Commission, in existence since 1987, has previously functioned as a seven member board appointed by the BoCC to administer tourism funds generated by revenues collected from the County Lodger's Tax. On January 19, 2010 the Board of County Commissioners approved Resolution 2010-3 which restructured the County Tourism Commission to more accurately reflect the current goals and existence of the group.

The new County Tourism Commission will be meeting within the next few weeks. All meetings are posted in the County Courthouse. To view a copy of Resolution 2010-3, go to the Archuleta County website at www.archuletacounty.org.
