County Extends Deadline for Planning Commission Applications

The Archuleta County Board of County Commissioners has extended the deadline for applications for the Planning Commission to Monday, March 9th at 5:00 pm.

As of the initial deadline of February 20th, the County received eleven applications. The extension will provide time for the possibility of additional candidates to apply as well as allow the Pagosa Springs Town Council to consider, after their retreat on March 5th, whether to have representation on the Planning Commission as a result of the proposed merging of development services between the Town and County.

Names of the applicants will be released after the closing date of March 9th and interviews will be conducted shortly thereafter.

More information can be found on the Archuleta County website at www.archuletacounty.org. Letters of intent and applications should be sent to rbellis@archuletacounty.org or faxed to: (970)731-3881.
